Objectives:

1. To ensure a fair and transparent grievance handling system by providing a platform where students, faculty, and staff can voice their concerns freely and get impartial solutions.
2. To promote a harmonious academic and work environment by resolving issues promptly and fostering mutual respect and understanding among all members of the institution.
3. To safeguard the rights and dignity of all stakeholders by addressing grievances related to discrimination, unfair treatment, or harassment effectively.
4. To maintain discipline and accountability within the institution by addressing behavioral, academic, or administrative grievances systematically.

5. To improve institutional functioning through feedback by identifying recurring issues and suggesting corrective measures to enhance efficiency and satisfaction.
